1. What do you learn about God, Yeshua or the characters in the story?

(The goal is to help people feel the emotions of each character)

2. Ask about other choices that could have been made by the characters.

(Do not go out of the story to other stories. Keep the focus on the story you're reading.)

Key questions to ask:

3. What does this story tell us?

(If people answer bizarre things ask where do you see that in this story? (Training them that the Bible is the #1 authority)

4. Is there something you'll do, or change in your life this week from what you learned in this story?

5. Who will you share this story with this week?
